

URBAN STREET DESIGN FOR ENGINEERS SEMINAR

LIGHTING AND CRIME : AN INTEGRATED APPROACH TO SECURITY

Joseph Maloney

13th November 2013

Agenda

1. Introduction
2. Constituent Factors for Urban Street Design
3. Risk & Benefits to an integrated Security Approach

Design

Risk

Integrated Approach

Introduction

Joseph Maloney

Security Consultant – NOONAN

Design

Risk

Integrated Approach

About NOONAN

Manned Guarding	CCTV	Cleaning	HVAC	Office Support	Pest Control	Reception

Patrols	Alarms	Cleanroom Cleaning	Helpdesk	Landscaping	Technical Services	Mail Room

Monitoring	MACS	Industrial Cleaning	Waste Management	Fabric Maintenance	Confidential Waste	Energy

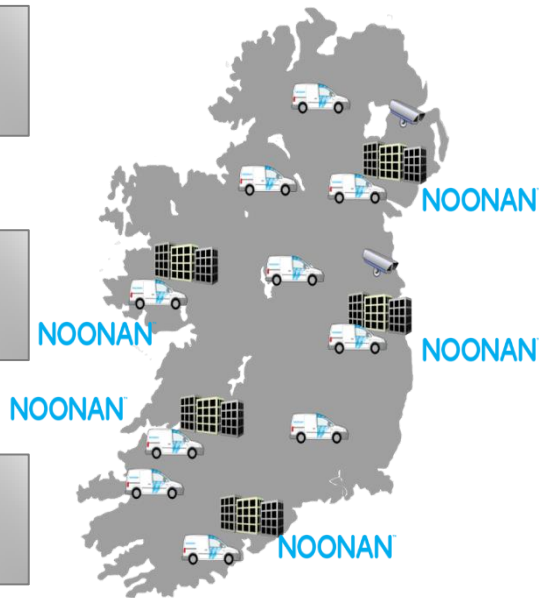

Security
M&E
Electronic Janitorial
Environmental Building Fabric

About NOONAN

West Region
 Staff Numbers 753
 Customers 231

Mid West Region
 Staff Numbers 935
 Customers 295

South Region
 Staff Numbers 1304
 Customers 395

North Region
 Staff Numbers 453
 Customers 162

East Region
 Staff Numbers 3555
 Customers 795

Founded 1977

Employs 7000

1700 Clients

Serving the best companies

Considerations

Approach : Prevention & Deterrent

Benefits : Safety

Design : CCTV – Close Circuit Television

Design

Risk

Integrated Approach

Bottom Line

Crime reduced Significantly
Fear of crime lessened
Personal & Commercial Safety
Quality of life measures improved
Night time street activity increased dramatically

Thank You

Questions