

Membership of the Geotechnical Society of Ireland and the International Society for Soil Mechanics and Geotechnical Engineering 2019/2020

The Geotechnical Society of Ireland (GSI) is a constituent society of the Institution of Engineers of Ireland (IEI). Members of the IEI can become members of the GSI at no extra cost. Non IEI members with an interest in geotechnical engineering and/or engineering geology are welcome to join the society on payment of a fee. Subscriptions cover the year including the session starting in Spring 2019 and finishing in Spring 2020.

The committee of the GSI is also the Irish Committee of the International Society for Soil Mechanics and Geotechnical Engineering (ISSMGE) and members of the GSI are invited to join ISSMGE for a subscription which covers our capitation and society fees. As well as supporting the advancement of the profession through the work of ISSMGE, membership allows the name of the member to appear in the ISSMGE international register and members receive the ISSMGE newsletter in electronic format. The society's website is www.issmge.org.

Please use the form below to indicate your interest in becoming (or continuing as) a member of the societies for 2019/2020 and forward a cheque or receipt confirm a bank transfer for the subscription payments (payable to “Geotechnical Society of Ireland”) to *Kevin Flynn, Hon.
