

ADJUDICATORS CV

Personal details
Name	Salutation: Mr First name: Peter Family name: Aeberli Post-nominals: RIBA, RIAS, FCI Arb, Chartered Architect, Barrister at law (Middle Temple), Chartered Arbitrator
Address	Address Line 1: 3 Paper Buildings Address Line 2: LONDON Address Line 3: EC4Y 7EU Address Line 4: United Kingdom
Contact details	Telephone: +44(0)207 583 8055 Fax: +44(0)207 353 6271 Email: pda@aeberli.com Website: www.aeberli.com ; www.3pb.com
Qualifications	MA (Edin), Dip Arch, BA Oxon (Juris), Dip IC Arb, RIBA, ARIAS, ACE, FCI Arb. Barrister, Chartered Arbitrator, Adjudicator, Accredited CEDR Mediator
Career history	Prior to reading law as a scholar at Hertford College, Oxford, Peter was a project architect with the Building Design Partnership, a large multi-disciplinary consultancy, and gained experience and understanding of the different skills, both professional and contracting, needed to realise complex construction projects, including hospitals, retail development and military installations. He has a good understanding of building technology being, for a number of years, a visiting lecturer in building construction at what is now Oxford Brooks University and starting a degree in Chemistry and Physics before changing to Architecture. He was, for a number of years in the mid 1990s a Joint Secretary of the Joint Contracts Tribunal (JCT). Has detailed knowledge of the Irish Construction Contracts Act 2013 and Code of Practice having devised and run in 2014 and 2015 the successful Conversion Course for Arbitrators and Conciliators in preparation for the coming into force of the Construction Contracts Act 2013. In 2016 devised and ran a course for representatives in Adjudication for the Irish Law Society. This Course to be repeated in 2017.
Positions held	As above. Since 1991, a practising Barrister, Arbitrator, Adjudicator and Mediator; at 3 Paper Buildings, London.
Dispute resolution experience	Experienced arbitrator, mediator and adjudicator. Apart from work as a barrister, his focus is dispute resolution principally, but not solely, in the construction industry. He has handled two and multi-party disputes. He is available for receives appointments as arbitrator, adjudicator and mediator by party agreement and from bodies such as the CI Arb (including NHBC), the CIOB, the Construction Confederation, CEDR, AICA, the RIBA, the RICS, the ICE, the ICC, the LCIA and the Law Society. He has been asked by the ICDR (AAA) to chair a tribunal but had to decline for personal reasons. He is listed as an adjudicator on high value and prestigious projects including the London 2012 Adjudication Panel, Crossrail and BAA Terminal 5. He is listed on numerous panels including the FIDIC President's list of dispute adjudicators, the ICC Canadian National Committee Panel of International Commercial Arbitrators, the ICDR (AAA) panel of international arbitrators, the International Institute for Conflict Prevention & Resolution (USA) Roster of arbitrators and mediators and Engineers' Ireland panel of arbitrators. Peter has served on committees concerned with arbitration, mediation and adjudication. He was one of the drafters of the Construction Industry Model Arbitration Rules and was involved in consultations with the Government on the Scheme for Construction Contracts. He is a member of the ICC Commission on Arbitration and was a member of the Commission Task Force on Reducing

ADJUDICATORS CV

	Time/Costs in complex arbitrations. He is a visiting senior lecturer at Kings College, London and sometime course director for the dispute resolution module of the MSc in Construction Law and Dispute Resolution.
Specific areas of expertise	Disputes on which Peter has acted, have involved: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Legal issues and contract interpretation.- Development agreements.- Technical and scientific issues, such as paint, roofing, cladding, corrosion, mechanical and electrical and structural defects.- Infrastructure and civil and structural engineering disputes including concrete structures, piles, roads, bridges, power stations, airport runways, sewers and water treatment works.- Environmental (including nuclear) issues.- Marine equipment.- Railways (infrastructure, computer equipment and rolling stock)- Professional negligence.- Delay and programming issues and disruption and delay costs.- Quantity surveying issues including interim and final account valuation.- High value/specification (up to £40 million at 2000 prices) residential properties.- Commercial agency agreements- International commercial disputes including ICC appointments (sole and chairman), LCIArb appointers (sole and wing arbitrator) UNCITRAL Rules and FIDIC dispute board.

Declaration: I accept responsibility for the accuracy of the particulars contained in this form including my qualifications and I agree that, when submitted, its contents will be made available on the Engineers Ireland website www.engineersireland.ie

I agree to the declaration above:

