Birr International STEAM Festival, 16th to 18th October 2025

Welcome Pack:

- 1. This series of maps on how to get to Birr, where to park in the town, and the various points of interest and locations where attendees will visit in the course of the festival.
- 2. For accommodation options, please refer to Engineers Ireland webpage here with contact details for hotels.
- 3. Menu for Doolys Hotel on Friday and Saturday nights, only applicable if you have opted for that when registering. No need to select option in advance of meal. Please indicate preferred dietary options ie vegan, gluten free, allergies when registering.
- 4. Attendees are required to check-in at the Birr Theatre and Arts Centre in advance of their attendance where wrist-bands will be issued. Please wear for attendance at all events.
- 5. For tours of Birr Castle and Gardens (and telescopes) please refer to the following link to make a reservation.

Tullamore and Take the M4 from Dublin to Kinnegad and turn off for Dublin Airport Heuston Station Athlone ringroad around Tullamore and on to Birr –1 hour 45mins train station Loughnavalley Coralstown Moyvally Maynooth Dublin Sandymount Robertstown Ballinagar Walsh Island Portarlington Athgarvans Clonaslee Rosenallis Cloghan Calverstown Vicarstown Layers Google

Birr Theatre and Arts Centre

One-way around church

County Arms Hotel

Castle Gates for car entrance

Theatre

Stables B&B, Café & Shop

Townsend Guesthouse Kelly's Pub refreshments

Dooly's Hotel for Dinner

John's Hall Exhibition

Science & Art Gallery

Leviathan Telescope

Castle

Old abbey on site of the signing of Law of the Innocents in 697 AD

County Arms 400m further on road

Statue of 3rd Earl of Rosse